Word reached the police station

Ward reached the police station host night that George Austin, colered, was being held at Mrs. Leon-tine Brauit's store at 522 East Marquette avenue, for delivery to any qualified representative of the law. George, it was said, had come into the store drunk and tried to run things to suit himself. When officers

Ed Lemshue and A. F. Hilber reached the store they found Austin tied in with ropes. In court today Austin admitted that he was drunk, and Judge Cruig made it $15 or fifteen days. He didn't have the money.

His Wife Choked and Compelled to Lead the Way to Cash Box.

Venecesiado Montoya had just closed his grocery store in San Jose, at 8 last night when there came a knock at the door of his living quarters As he opened the door two masked men isaped upon him and hurted him back into the room. One of the two men threatened the grocer with a knife, while the other choked his wife and demanded to know where her husband kept his money. Montoya caught a glimpse of a third masked man on guard outside the house.

of a third masked man on guard outside the house.

Mrs. Montoya, in terror of her life, led the man who threatened her to her husband's cash box. It contained $3s in cash and three Sants Fe paychecks, totaling $40. The robber snatched the box and he and his companion ran from the house. They fired three shots as they went to hold Montoya in check.

Montoya in check.

Montoya notified the city and county police, and deputies and policemen searched San Jose and Barelas for a trace of the robbers. The authorities have a general description of the two men who were in Montoya's house. toya's house.

PEACE OFFICERS

Justice Tartaghlia Is Trying to Clean up the Turbulent Suburb; After the Gun Toters.

Justice of the Peace Pedro B. Justice of the Peace Pedro B. Tartaghila of San Jose has issued a warrant against Jose Gutierres, an employe at the tie-tresting plant, who is alleged to have discharged a revolver, on the street in San Jose last night. The justice is trying to 'clean up' San Jose.

Justice Tartaghlia says San Jose beeds more police protection. Some time ago the county commissioners were petitioned to put a deputy on duty there at county expense.

"We need another deputy," said Justice Tartaghlia today. "There are robberies and hold-ups and simost every other form of inwiessness going on right along. Right now the sheriff is looking for a San Jose man who shot Frank Storga recently, a couple of weeks ago the Trujillo saloch was robbed by hold-ups, and has night three masted men assaulted and robbed Venceslado Montoya and his wife in their home. On such nights as the tie-plant workmen receive their pay, like last night, disorder occurs levelvers are shot and trouble is always in the air."

Justice Tartaghlia said he would call the attention of the county commissioners to the state of affairs again, and hoped the increase in the force of peace officers would be ordered.
